

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK is a powerful stage play adapted from the real-life diary of a young Jewish girl. It is an adaption of the posthumously published 1947 book “The Diary of a Young Girl” by Anne Frank. It premiered on Broadway at the Cort Theatre in 1955. Its script also primarily formed the basis of the Academy Award-winning 1959 film adaptation. The original stage production ran for 717 performances.

The play received the Pulitzer Prize for Drama for Albert Hackett and Frances Goodrich. Susan Strasberg won the 1956 Theatre World Award for her portrayal of Anne.
